

Project: Monroe County Water Authority
Customer: D'Agostino Construction, Angelo Antonini

RECEIVED
JAN 24 2003

Excellent ↔ Poor

BY: .....

• Bid Proposal                     

- Was the Bid Proposal prepared to provide a complete scope per the contract documents?
- Available and willing to discuss project specific details.
- Other→

• Workmanship                     

- Quality of finishes – walls, ceilings, door installation, wood, etc.
- Tradesmen conducted themselves in a professional manor
- Other→

• Foreman                     

- Demonstrated ability to perform work with knowledge and depth of experience.
- Demonstrated an understanding of project schedule and adhered to milestone activities.
- Worked harmoniously with other trades in a productive and sequential manor.
- Worked to solve issues or obstacles with a positive and constructive outlook.
- Other→

• Project Manager                     

- Demonstrated ability, knowledge, and depth of experience.
- Demonstrated an understanding of project schedule and planned for long lead materials or specialty items.
- Was reactive to project pricing and or issues in a timely manor.
- Other→

• Labor Superintendent                     

- Was reactive to the project schedule by supplying adequate manpower.
- Provided project with experienced and capable trades- people.
- Other→ ONLY VISITED SITE A FEW TIMES, NO ISSUES

• Overall Performance                     

▼ Client's Comments ▼

★ OVERALL GREAT EXPERIENCE, THANK YOU!!